

Mrs. Fuller's Grade 2
Hawks in Harmony
Inspired by Kelsey Montague art

Each student created a feather using tints and shades as well as lines and patterns, and included a personal trait that was recognized by a classmate. Though each of us is unique like an individual feather, our differences are our strengths and, when combined, they give us the ability to soar.
#WhatLiftsYou

Mrs. Fuller's Grade 2
Hawks in Harmony
Inspired by Kelsey Montague art

Each student created a feather using tints and shades as well as lines and patterns, and included a personal trait that was recognized by a classmate. Though each of us is unique like an individual feather, our differences are our strengths and, when combined, they give us the ability to soar.
#WhatLiftsYou

Each student created a feather using tints and shades as well as lines and patterns, and included a personal trait that was recognized by a classmate. Though each of us is unique like an individual feather, our differences are our strengths and, when combined, they give us the ability to soar.

#WhatLiftsYou